About

Our Winter Program guarantees a fun, supportive and encouraging experience for students new to drama or for students who have enjoyed drama previously. Students will develop their communication and team building skills while making new friends and evolving their acting techniques, along with building fundamental personal confidence and overcoming any personal obstacles such as anxiety or shyness.

What the program offers

This 3-day intensive program will offer students the opportunity to fast track their acting skills through a range of activities such as; improvisation, creative story-telling, group activities, scene studies and self-devised scripts. Students will develop their confidence, creative and communication skills through a combination of drama activities which will then lead to a live performance on the final day. Our Winter Workshop is the perfect way to make new friends and experience being creative with other young performers!

TRACEY COLLINS

With over 20 years' experience in teaching, Tracey has designed and created this inclusive drama program to encourage students to explore their creativity in a safe and nurturing environment.

The theme for this program is Fractured Fairy Tales. Students will workshop and re-write their own version of a fairy tale using basic and familiar elements of the original story. Tracey will delicately guide students by using creative tools and activities throughout the process to showcase the finished product on the final day of the program.
